READ! THINK! ACT!

Rev. Edward E. Hale:

"The disinterested work of the medical profession and the spread of life insurance over this world I take to be two of the finest concrete illustrations of the principles on which Christianity is founded."

Rev. Henry Ward Beecher:

"Your affairs may become involved, and your property be taken for debt. But a thousand dollars insurance on your life cannot be taken for debt; cannot be alienated from your heirs; and if you have chosen your company discreetly, is subject to no commercial risks. It is as nearly sure as anything earthly can be."

Bishop Henry C. Potter:

"Life insurance has advantages, especially to persons of small means, which it does not seem easy to overstate. To those of my own profession it furnishes a method of laying by for 'a rainy day' of all the most practical and effectual."

Rev. Lyman Abbott:

"What many men count an objection to life insurance, I count its first advantage. It compels thrift; it necessitates saving; it puts the insured under bonds to lay up a few dollars every year to provide for the future."

The Rev. T. DeWitt Talmage:

"It is a mean thing to go up to Heaven while your family go to the poorhouse. When they are out at the elbows the thought of your splendid robe in Heaven will not keep them warm. The minister may preach a splendid sermon over your remains, and the quartette may sing like four angels alighted in the organ loft, but your death will be a swindle."

President William H. Taft:

"A man in office without means, must abandon the hope of making the future of his family luxuriously comfortable. All a man can do under existing circumstances to safeguard his family is to get his life insured."

Hon. Theodore Roosevelt:

"Life insurance increases the stability of the business world, raises its moral tone and puts a premium upon those habits of thrift and saving which are so essential to the welfare of the people as a body."

Governor Charles E. Hughes:

"I could not possibly exaggerate my deep sympathy in the purpose of influencing those who have many dependent upon them, to take advantage, through thrift and providence, of the opportunities that are afforded by our insurance contracts. As I have said, I believe in life insurance."

Hon. Grover Cleveland:

"Get a policy and then hold on to it. It means self-respect, it means that nobody will have to put something in a hat for you or your dependent ones if you should be snatched away from them."

Benjamin Franklin:

"A policy of life insurance is the cheapest and safest mode of making a certain provision for one's family."

Lord Brougham:

"Associations for the assurance of lives are to be ranked among the very noblest institutions of civilized society."

John Wanamaker, whose life has been insured for a million and a half, once said:

"From the day an honest man pays the first premium for life insurance, that first receipt of his gives a new impulse, a new light to his eye and a new hope to his heart."

IS YOUR LIFE IF NOT: Can you give any good reason—other than ineligibility—INSURED? why you should not insure?
IF INSURED: Are you adequately insured? Will the income from your life insurance be sufficient to provide for your family as they are now accustomed to living?
